

Employee Volunteer Projects for the Year 2009

November 26, 2009 - HSBC Community Kitchen Volunteer Event

December 7 & 11, 2009 - Conoco Phillips groups volunteered at the Calgary Interfaith Food bank.

October 2009 - SAP

Each October, SAP International encourages good corporate citizenship by giving their employees a day off to volunteer. This year, they directed their time and energy towards LINK-ages Society of Alberta, a non-profit organization which links youths and seniors. SAP employees left the warmth and comfort of their own offices, flexed their muscles as they trimmed old and overgrown trees and bushes, planted new ones, and installed outdoor lamps as a final touch.

July 30, 2009 – Trans Canada

A team of volunteer from TransCanada painted an appreciative senior's home out in the Forest Lawn area of Calgary.

July 17, 2009 – Trico Homes

Richard Gotfried, Vice President of Corporate Communications, as well as Ann Barnes, brought a team of enthusiastic employees to undertake an extensive Trico home improvement make-over for a lucky senior in Bowness. The Trico team painted the exterior of the house, planted shrubs and flowers, pruned trees, created a tree well, built a concrete patio on the yard, and installed a handrail for the front porch. What a multi-talented team! The senior was more than satisfied with the results -- she was utterly ecstatic.

July 16, 2009 – ConocoPhillips

Volunteers from two different internal departments from Conoco Phillips came out to restore the west end of Fish Creek Park by lending a hand with litter pick up. The event was based on the theme of low impact to the environment. A bus was rented for the event to lessen the amount of cars driven out to the site. More than 25 bags of garbage were collected by the volunteers. After the litter cleaning portion of the event an environmentally conscious lunch was provided for volunteers.
